This Privacy Policy is intended to inform you about how Island Doctors collects and uses your personally identifiable information (“PII”) and other information in operating the Website.

How does the Website Work?

The Website offers anonymous browsers and users who voluntarily provide us with certain PII (collectively “you” or “your”) access to various health-related information. You do not have to provide any PII to us in order to use the Website, but you may voluntarily submit certain PII if, for instance, you wish to use the Support form and or Recipe Submission form. By using the Website, you consent to the collection and use of your information as described herein. Island Doctors reserves the right to change how we handle the information we collect and process through the Website at any time. We will update this Privacy Policy to reflect any changes and such changes will take effect immediately once posted.

What type of PII does Island Doctors collect from you and how do we use it?

As stated above, you may provide certain PII to Island Doctors in order to have access to certain features on the Website. Such PII shall include basic biographical and contact information, such as your name and email address. Unless you provide PII to Island Doctors through the Website, we will not collect any PII from you. Island Doctors may provide your PII to entities who work on behalf of or with us. These entities may use your PII to help fulfill your requests in connection with the Website and to help us communicate with you about different resources offered as part of the Website.

For instance, we may transfer information collected, including PII, to providers and other third parties who assist us in running the Website in order to execute transactions requested by you.

Under what other circumstances may we release PII?

We may also release your PII if we believe such release is necessary to comply with the law (e.g., a legal process or a statutory authorization), to apply or enforce our customer agreements, to protect our rights or property, to protect Website users from fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful use of the Website, or if we reasonably believe that a danger to any person requires disclosure of such PII.

What other information does Island Doctors collect?

We also collect anonymous and aggregate information from you about your preferences in navigating the Website by using cookies, action tags and other methods. Cookies are small text files that identify your computer. We may use cookies to, among other things, monitor Website usage, customize Website features, identify your computer's operating system and browser, and complete transactions. An action tag is a small, graphic image on a webpage that is designed to allow the website owner or a third party to monitor who is visiting a website by collecting the IP address of the computer to which the tag is sent, the URL of the webpage that the tag comes from and the time that such webpage was viewed. Tags may be associated with cookie information. We may also use such anonymous and aggregate information for promotional purposes.

Do I have the ability not to be identified by Island Doctors?

You can also adjust the settings in your browser to refuse all cookies. If you do not want us to have any of your PII, do not submit any of your PII to us.

How do we store information?

Island Doctors takes steps consistent with HIPA standards to secure any PII collected from you from loss, misuse, unauthorized access and destruction while under our control.
